CITY COUNCIL.—The Second Branch of Council will hold an adjourned meeting We have not heard whether the First Branch will meet or not.

ILL.-We regret to learn that Rev. Dr Richmond, of North street M. E. Church, is seriously ill at some point in the interior of the State not now remembered Fears are entertasned that he will never be able to resume the active work of his charge.

DISCHARGED.-Harry Frebble was ar rested and taken before Esqr. McCormick of Centre District, yesterday, to answer the complaint of Samuel Eak, who alleg ed that Frebble had stolen his watch The charge was thoroughly investigated but the evidence did not substantiate it Thereupon the prisoner was discharged WARM.—There was a decidedly up ward tendency in the mercury yesterday The temperature resembled July or August more than September. The dust was as abundant as we have seen it any time this summer. Will not the authorities take some steps to have the principal streets sprinkled?

BEING PAINTED.-Col. H. R. List i baying the exterior wood work of his spacious warehouse on the corner of Main and 14th streets, painted, adding much to of the McLure House. The audience, alspacious warehouse on the corner of Main and 14th streets, painted, adding much to its appearance and throwing some of the property in the vicinity very far into the shade. We hope the owners of the latter will take the hint and follow Col. L's. ex-

BEHIND TIME.—The passenger train over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad known as the Fast Line, due here about o'clock every morning, did not reach thi city until nearly noon, yesterday. We made diligent inquiry as to the cause of the detention, but failed to clicit any particulars. The St. Louis Express was als slightly behind time, yesterday.

Going to LEAVE. We heard in evening, that Judge Paull has purchased a farm in the suburbs of Wellsburg, and will remove to it on or about the 1st of our loss will be the gain of Brooke coun

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Very little was done in this Court, yesterday. A case in which Jeff. Martin, of Marshall county, is a party was set for trial, and on examination it was found that some of the papers were in Moundsville. A messenger was dispatched for them, but the train was dened and consequently no progress in

The case involving the ownership of the water power at Harper's Ferry was also to be heard, yesterday, but the counsel on one side, who are residents of Matinsburg, failed to make their appearance, and therefore nothing was done

Pupils Arriving.-President Mortor as before--everything sold of the Female Callege, informed us yesterday that pupils are coming in quite rapidly, and that the prospect of a full makes neat fits, and charges moderate school was never better at this early period in the College year than at present We are gratified that we can make thi statement. The Faculty is full, and each member of it is thoroughly imbued with the spirit requisite to constitute a successful teacher. There is no reason why a firmly established in our midst. It looks now as if that much-desired object is or > DEAD.-Guy Miller, a colored man who was tried in Weston, and sentenced to be hung on the 27th of June last, died in the jail of Lewis county on the morning of last Tuesday. It will be remembered that the case of Miller was taken to the Court of Appeals of the State, on a writ of error, and a new trial granted him. Miller was charged with the murder of a colored man named Steve South all, about a year ago, during a melee in POLICE COURT.-Thus far this has been more than an average week for business in the police court. Yesterday morning the following docket was disposed of John See, drunk, three dollars and costs Joseph Porter, disorderly, two dollars and costs; Mrs. Mack, same, and Michael 1873.
